

WORK well

Explore. Prepare. Connect. Flourish.

Check Handshake and the Well Core Calendar for details

Explore | Discover Handshake, Wednesday, September 4, 10:00am, McWhorter 110

This session will walk you through how to maximize your Handshake account, participate in the Career Plan pathway, complete your Profile and indicate your Career Interests to develop your personalized career plan. Sponsored by Office of Career & Professional Development

Roadmap to Success: How to Flourish at Belmont, Monday, September 9th, 10-11am | Jack Massey Center 570

College life is a major transition for students and it can be overwhelming to identify your road to success. Come to this session to better understand the many opportunities at Belmont and consider when to work them into your success plan. You will hear from several offices that serve as members of YOUR Student Success and Flourishing team – who's role is to support you along your journey. At this session, you will be provided with a Roadmap to Success and introduced to the resources that can help you successfully complete your journey and flourish during your college experience and beyond. Bruinlink event: <https://bruinlink.belmont.edu/event/10164285>

Global Bruins: Developing Cultural Competency

Wednesday, September 11th, 10:00 am, 100 Barbara Massey Rogers Center

Interacting across cultures brings a myriad of assumptions and values to the conversation. Come learn about the different aspects of culture based on Hofstede's Cultural Dimensions Theory in order to improve your own intercultural competency when communicating with people with values different from your own. This is the first co-curricular workshop that is part of our Intercultural Competency Program. Sponsored by Global Bruins

Explore | Understand Yourself, Friday, September 13, 10:00am, Massey Center 2nd Floor Flourishing Lounge

Want to learn more about career readiness, career planning, your personality, interests, values, skills, & strengths, and what career options to consider? This session will provide interactive activities and show you how to access a free career assessment tool. Cosponsored by Be Well BU and Student Success & Flourishing

What if a Christian Community was a Reconciling Community?" with David Bailey, Monday, September 30, 10:00am, Gabhart Chapel

Jesus says, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God." What happens when a Christian community is known more for being cultural warriors than peacemakers? Should a Christian community be a reconciling community? In this talk, we'll explore what is a reconciling community and what we could do to live into this hope-filled vision. David M. Bailey is a public theologian, culturemaker, and catalyst focused on cultivating reconciling communities. David is the Founder and CEO of Arrabon, a spiritual formation ministry that equips the American Church to actively and creatively pursue racial healing in their communities. He is the co-author of the study series, A People, A Place, and A Just Society. David is an ordained minister rooted at East End Covenant Fellowship, serving on the preaching team, Co-sponsored by the HUB and Office of Career and Professional Development

Global Bruins: Shifting Perception, Wednesday, October 2, 10:00am, 100 Barbara Massey Rogers Center

As we operate on a daily basis, it is easy to make snap judgements, especially when we are fluent and comfortable in our current cultural environment. Come out to this hands-on workshop to learn skills to operate more effectively in different cultural situations by building self-awareness, objectivity, and avoiding misunderstandings. Sponsored by Global Bruins

Connect | Equity and Inclusion in the Workplace, Friday, October 4, 10:00am, McWhorter 110

What does it mean to bring your whole self to work, feel valued and have a voice? Join us to learn from organizations who have made a commitment to practicing equity and inclusion and how today's students can identify companies and demonstrate the awareness and skills needed to equitably engage and include people from different local and global cultures. Conversation will also include when/if to disclose documented disability in the job search. Cosponsored by College of Education and The HUB.

Prepare | Professionalism: Strategies for Time Management & Communication, Monday, October 7, 10:00am
JAAC 1034

Work environments differ greatly, and it can be difficult to understand and demonstrate effective work habits and communicate effectively. Join us to build strategies for managing your time and communicating more effectively with your professors, supervisors, and fellow classmates. Sponsored by Office of Career & Professional Development and College of Education.

Connect | Job Search Research and Strategy, OFFERED 2 TIMES:

Wednesday, October 16, 4:00pm, Virtual; Monday, October 21, 10:00am, JAAC 1037

Develop confidence in your search and in your career plan while learning more about research tools that can help students understand industries and specific companies. Cosponsored by Lila D. Bunch Library

Social Change & Me, October 16 & 18. Details in BruinLink

An interactive overview of socially responsible leadership. Sponsored by BOLD.

Prepare | Ethical AI, TBD

Join the Belmont Data Collaborative for an interactive event that will challenge you to think critically about how to engage in technology and consider the impact on people and communities.

Sponsored by the Belmont Data Collaborative

Connect | Find Belonging at Belmont and Beyond, Friday, November 8, 10:00am, McWhorter 110

Join us for a conversation with Belmont alumni about finding your people, what belonging looks like post college and how finding affinity groups on campus has helped them navigate post-college life.

Cosponsored by The HUB, Student Success & Flourishing, and University Ministries

Flourish | Global Opportunities Abroad, Monday, November 11, 10:00am, 104 Barbara Massey Rogers

Thinking about what to do after graduation? Interested in a global experience? Join the Belmont staff and faculty who provide support for student applications for post-graduation fellowships abroad to learn more about opportunities such as Fulbright Awards, the Peace Corps, and Belmont's own Lumos Travel Award. We will review these unique opportunities along with ways to prepare for applying. Cosponsored by Global Bruins and Office of the Provost

Connect | IMPROV your Communication and Teamwork, Wednesday, November 13, 9:00am, McWhorter 108

Working with others is not always easy. In this session, participants learn how Improv connects to networking interactions, job interviews, and workplace communication while having fun practicing and improving their teamwork and communication skills. Cosponsored by the Department of Theatre and Dance, College of Pharmacy & Health Sciences

Leadership Lately @ Pulse Getaway & Leadership Advance: November 16, Register through BOLD

Students will learn about various BOLD leadership competencies and discuss topics on the latest in leadership research, books, trends, authors, opportunities or student experiences across campus, in the Nashville community or across the globe. Sponsored by Belmont Office of Leadership Development

Self-Paced Well Core: Career Planning Made Easy. Available in Canvas.

Fall Recruiting Events: Check Handshake for Details

Student Employment Fair, Tuesday, August 20th, 11:00 am – 1:00 pm, Maddox Grand Atrium.
(Sponsored by Student Financial Services).

Healthcare and Helping Professions Career Fair, Tuesday, September 10. 1:00pm – 3:00pm,
Beaman Lobby
(Sponsored by ICON and Office of Career & Professional Development).

Community Connections Fair, Monday, September 16, 10:00am – 12:00pm, Maddox Grand Atrium
(Sponsored by Office of Service Learning)

Business and Technology Career Expo, Wednesday, September 18, 2024, 10:00am – noon, Ayers
Conference.
(Sponsored by Massey College of Business and Office of Career & Professional Development)

Law School Fair, Monday, September 30, 2024. 10:00am – Noon. Ayers 1st Floor Atrium.
(Sponsored by CLASS and Office of Career & Professional Development)

Curb College Internship Fair, Wednesday, October 2, 2024, 10:00am- noon. Maddox Grand Atrium.
(Sponsored by CEMB and Office of Career & Professional Development).

Graduate & Professional School Fair, Wednesday, October 23, 2024, 10:00am – 2:00pm, Ayers
Atrium Lobbies.
(Sponsored by Admissions and Office of Career & Professional Development)

School of Physical Therapy Career Fair, Thursday, November 7, 2024, 11:30am – 1:30pm, Ayers
Conference.
(Sponsored by CPHS and Office of Career & Professional Development)